Please return this form to the applicant in a sealed envelope.

Students applying for summer ministry are inviting you into their lives. Please take advantage of this God-given opportunity to bring sin to light so that the healing process can begin. Discussing issues within this reference creates a natural bridge to communicate truth, extend grace and develop their character.

The applicant is applying for a position at Camp Rock, a day camp program for at-risk youth run by the Holland Rescue Mission in Holland, MI. If the applicant is accepted for a position, he/she will be working with boys and girls ages 6-12 or 13-16. To the best of your ability please answer the following questions based on your knowledge of the applicant. Please note that this reference will be used for both acceptance and development, and it is therefore most valuable when filled out objectively. Please avoid the temptation to make the applicant appear perfect. Thank you for helping us hire the most qualified staff possible.

How long have you known the applicant and in what capacity? _____

How well do you know the applicant? _____

Please circle the appropriate number. Circle “?” if your knowledge is insufficient in that area.
